

I am opposed to the proposal to eliminate the code requirement. I believe that amateurs should be held to a higher standard in the US. I have seen the results of what happened when citizen band regulations were relaxed. It became a haven for the less desired. I believe it is integral to the integrity of the amateur community.

Sincerely,

Joe Levesque